

	A	B	C
1	Issues for Comparison	Hyde Amendment, As found in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2008 (H.R. 2764), signed into law December 26, 2007 (Public Law 110-161)	Stupak-Pitts Amendment to H.R. 3962
2	Application	Applies to all funds appropriated through the Labor, Health and Human Services Appropriations Bill, including Medicaid which provides coverage for individuals up to 150% of the poverty level.	Applies to funds authorized and appropriated through H.R. 3962. The new "affordability credits" are available to individuals between 150 and 400% of the poverty level.
3	Prohibits federal funds that are authorized or appropriated in connection to the underlying legislation (federal funds) from being used to pay for abortion	Sec. 507(a)	Sec. 265(a)
4	Prevents federal funds from being used to support health care plans that offer abortion coverage	507 (b-c)	265(a)
5	Provides exceptions for rape, incest, and life of the mother	508 (a) (1) and (2)	265(a)
6	Permits supplemental abortion coverage	508(b)	265(b)
7	Specifies that supplemental abortion coverage must be funded from separate funds which are not tied to federal funding or funding for which there are federal matching funds	508(b)	265 (b)(1) and (b)(2)(A-B))
8	Permits private health plans to offer abortion coverage	508(c) Providers may offer abortion coverage, and states may contract with such providers with their own funds for the provision of abortion services.	265(c). 265(c)(3) states that private health insurance plans participating in the health care exchange may offer two plans, one that covers abortion and one that does not (but otherwise identical). Plans that cover abortion would be available to people in the exchange who do not receive affordability credits. The plan that does not cover abortion will be available to people who receive affordability credits.
9	Offers Conscience protections for providers	508(d)	Page 3 strikes 304(d) from H.R. 3962 to strengthen the bill's conscience protection by ensuring that pro-life insurance companies are also protected.